

A PLACE OF PRAYER

In Acts 2, New Testament house churches became a place of community for believers. Followers of Jesus came together to study God's Word, break bread, and share the miraculous works of the Holy Spirit. In these communities, there was something crucial woven throughout — prayer. Praise, thanksgiving, prayers of healing, prayers of trust and surrender. House churches were places of prayer.

Your House Church is your faith community; it is your place of prayer. Lean into 21 Days of Prayer with your House Church and pray together; pray for one another; pray that God would pour out His Spirit.
